

What On Earth
Is God Doing? (12)

Joshua 1:6-9

6. Be strong and courageous, for you shall cause this people to inherit the land that I swore to their fathers to give them.
7. Only be strong and very courageous, being careful to do according to all the law that Moses my servant commanded you. Do not turn from it to the right hand or to the left, that you may have good success wherever you go.

8. This Book of the Law shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful to do according to all that is written in it. For then you will make your way prosperous, and then you will have good success.
9. Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be frightened, and do not be dismayed, for the Lord your God is with you wherever you go."

Isaiah 59:14-15

14. Justice is turned back, and righteousness stands far off. For truth has stumbled in the street and uprightness cannot enter.
15. So now truth is missing, and whoever shuns evil becomes prey.

- * “Post-truth” has been selected as the word which, more than any other, reflects “the passing year in language”.
- * “Post-truth” is defined as “relating to or denoting circumstances in which objective facts are less influential in shaping public opinion than appeals to emotion and personal belief”.

POST as a prefix =

- * after : subsequent : later
- * following after
- * subsequent to : later than

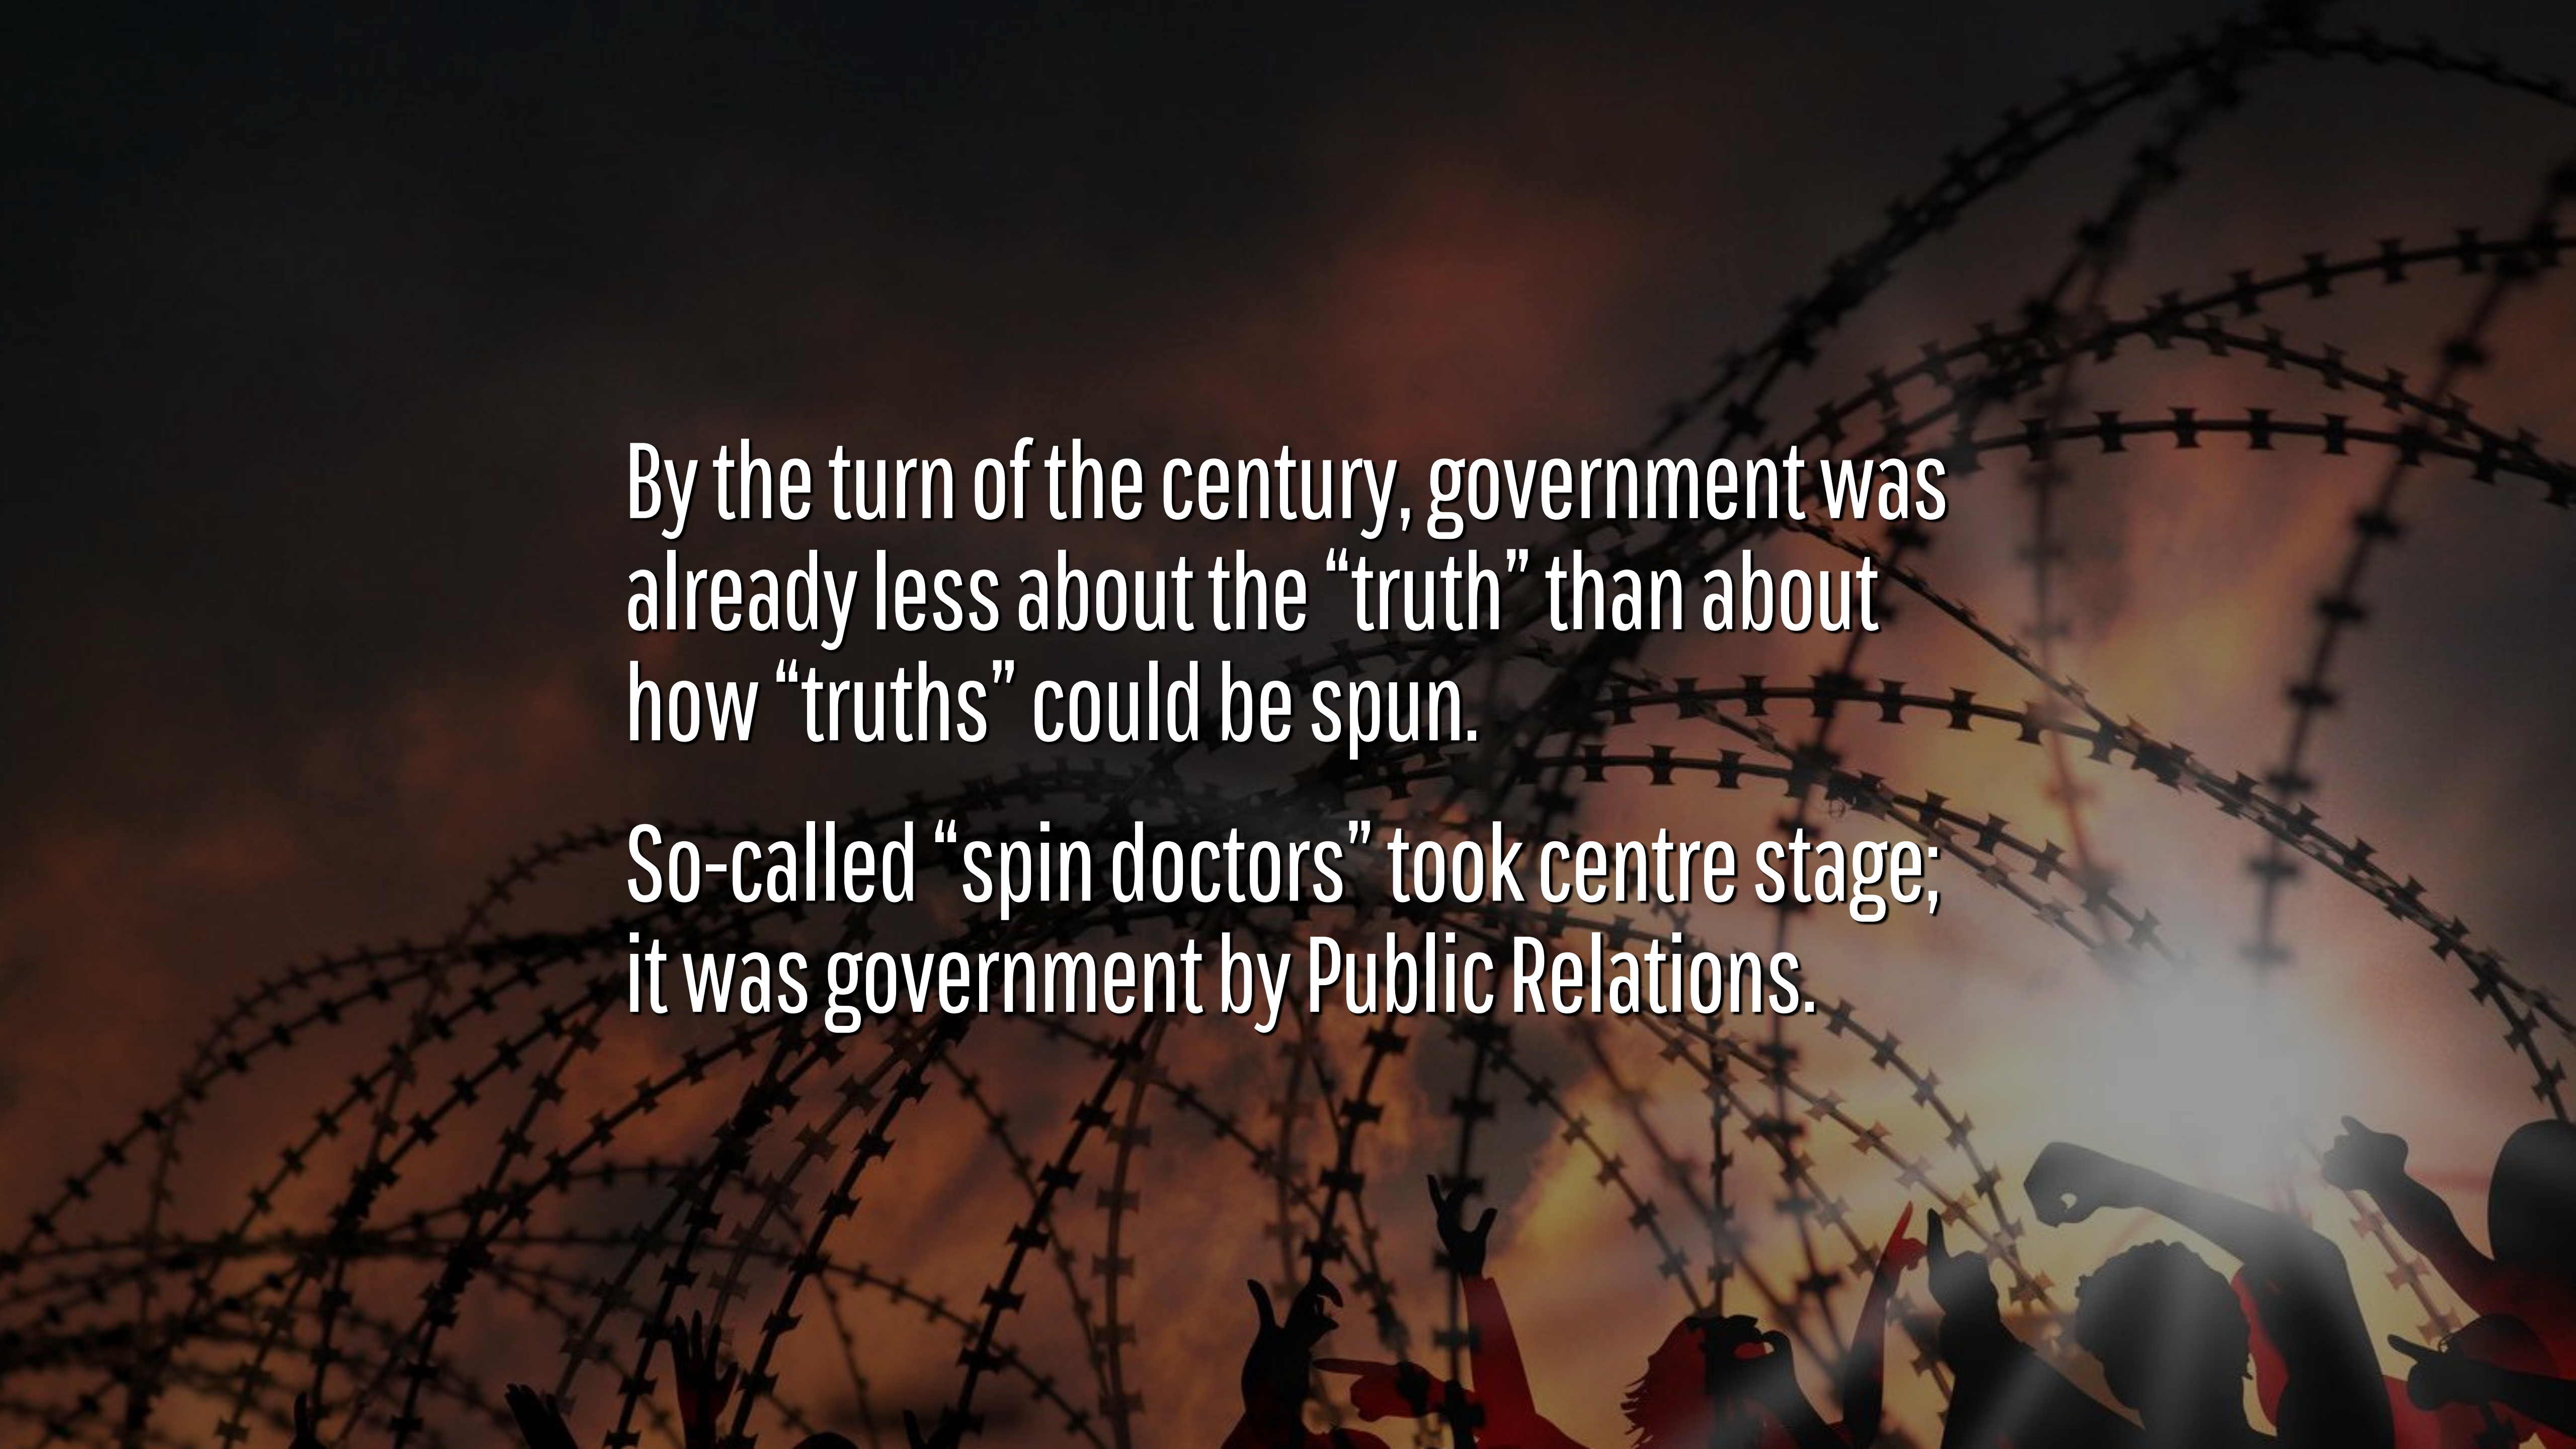

A POST-TRUTH era therefore =

- * the era ... after : subsequent to : later than ... an era of TRUTH
- * the era ... following after ... an era of TRUTH

The German postfaktisch (post-factual) was selected as word of the year by the German language society Gesellschaft für deutsche Sprache (GfdS). It refers to the growing tendency of “political and social discussions” to be dominated by “emotions instead of facts”.

Ever greater sections of the population are ready to ignore facts, and even to accept obvious lies willingly. Not the claim to truth, but the expression of the ‘felt truth’ leads to success in the ‘post-factual age’.

By the turn of the century, government was already less about the “truth” than about how “truths” could be spun.

So-called “spin doctors” took centre stage; it was government by Public Relations.

Each of us lives in our own bubble. Increasingly, we become so secure in our bubbles that we start accepting only information, whether it's true or not, that fits our opinions, instead of basing our opinions on the evidence that is out there. As a result, our individual abilities to separate accurate ideas from wrong-headed assertions are deteriorating. All we do is reject evidence that contradicts our favorite politician by declaring the source to be unreliable on the very grounds that it tells a different story than the one we'd like to be true.

The way we are wired to accept facts as truth based on trust in those who supposedly know, make us ripe for manipulation and exploitation by those who have an agenda to push, especially if they can discredit all other sources of information.

Ephesians 3:14-21

14. For this reason I bow my knees before the Father,
15. from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named,
16. according to the riches of His glory He may grant you to be strengthened with power through His Spirit in your inner being,
17. so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith—that you,
being rooted and grounded in love,
18. may have strength to comprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth,
19. and to know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge, that you may be filled with all the fullness of God.

20. Now to Him who is able to do far more abundantly than all that we ask or think, according to the power at work within us,
21. to Him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, forever and ever. Amen.
