The Importance of

TRUTH

Concerning

ISRAEL

An illustration of the Temple of Solomon in Jerusalem being destroyed by fire. The temple is depicted as a white stone structure with a central entrance and a golden crown on top. Large, stylized flames in shades of orange and yellow are shown rising from the roof and sides of the temple. The background is a dark purple sky with white, wavy lines representing smoke or clouds. The foreground shows a brown, hilly landscape.

Tisha B'Av

began at sundown on Saturday, August 2nd, and ended at nightfall on Sunday, August 3rd, 2025

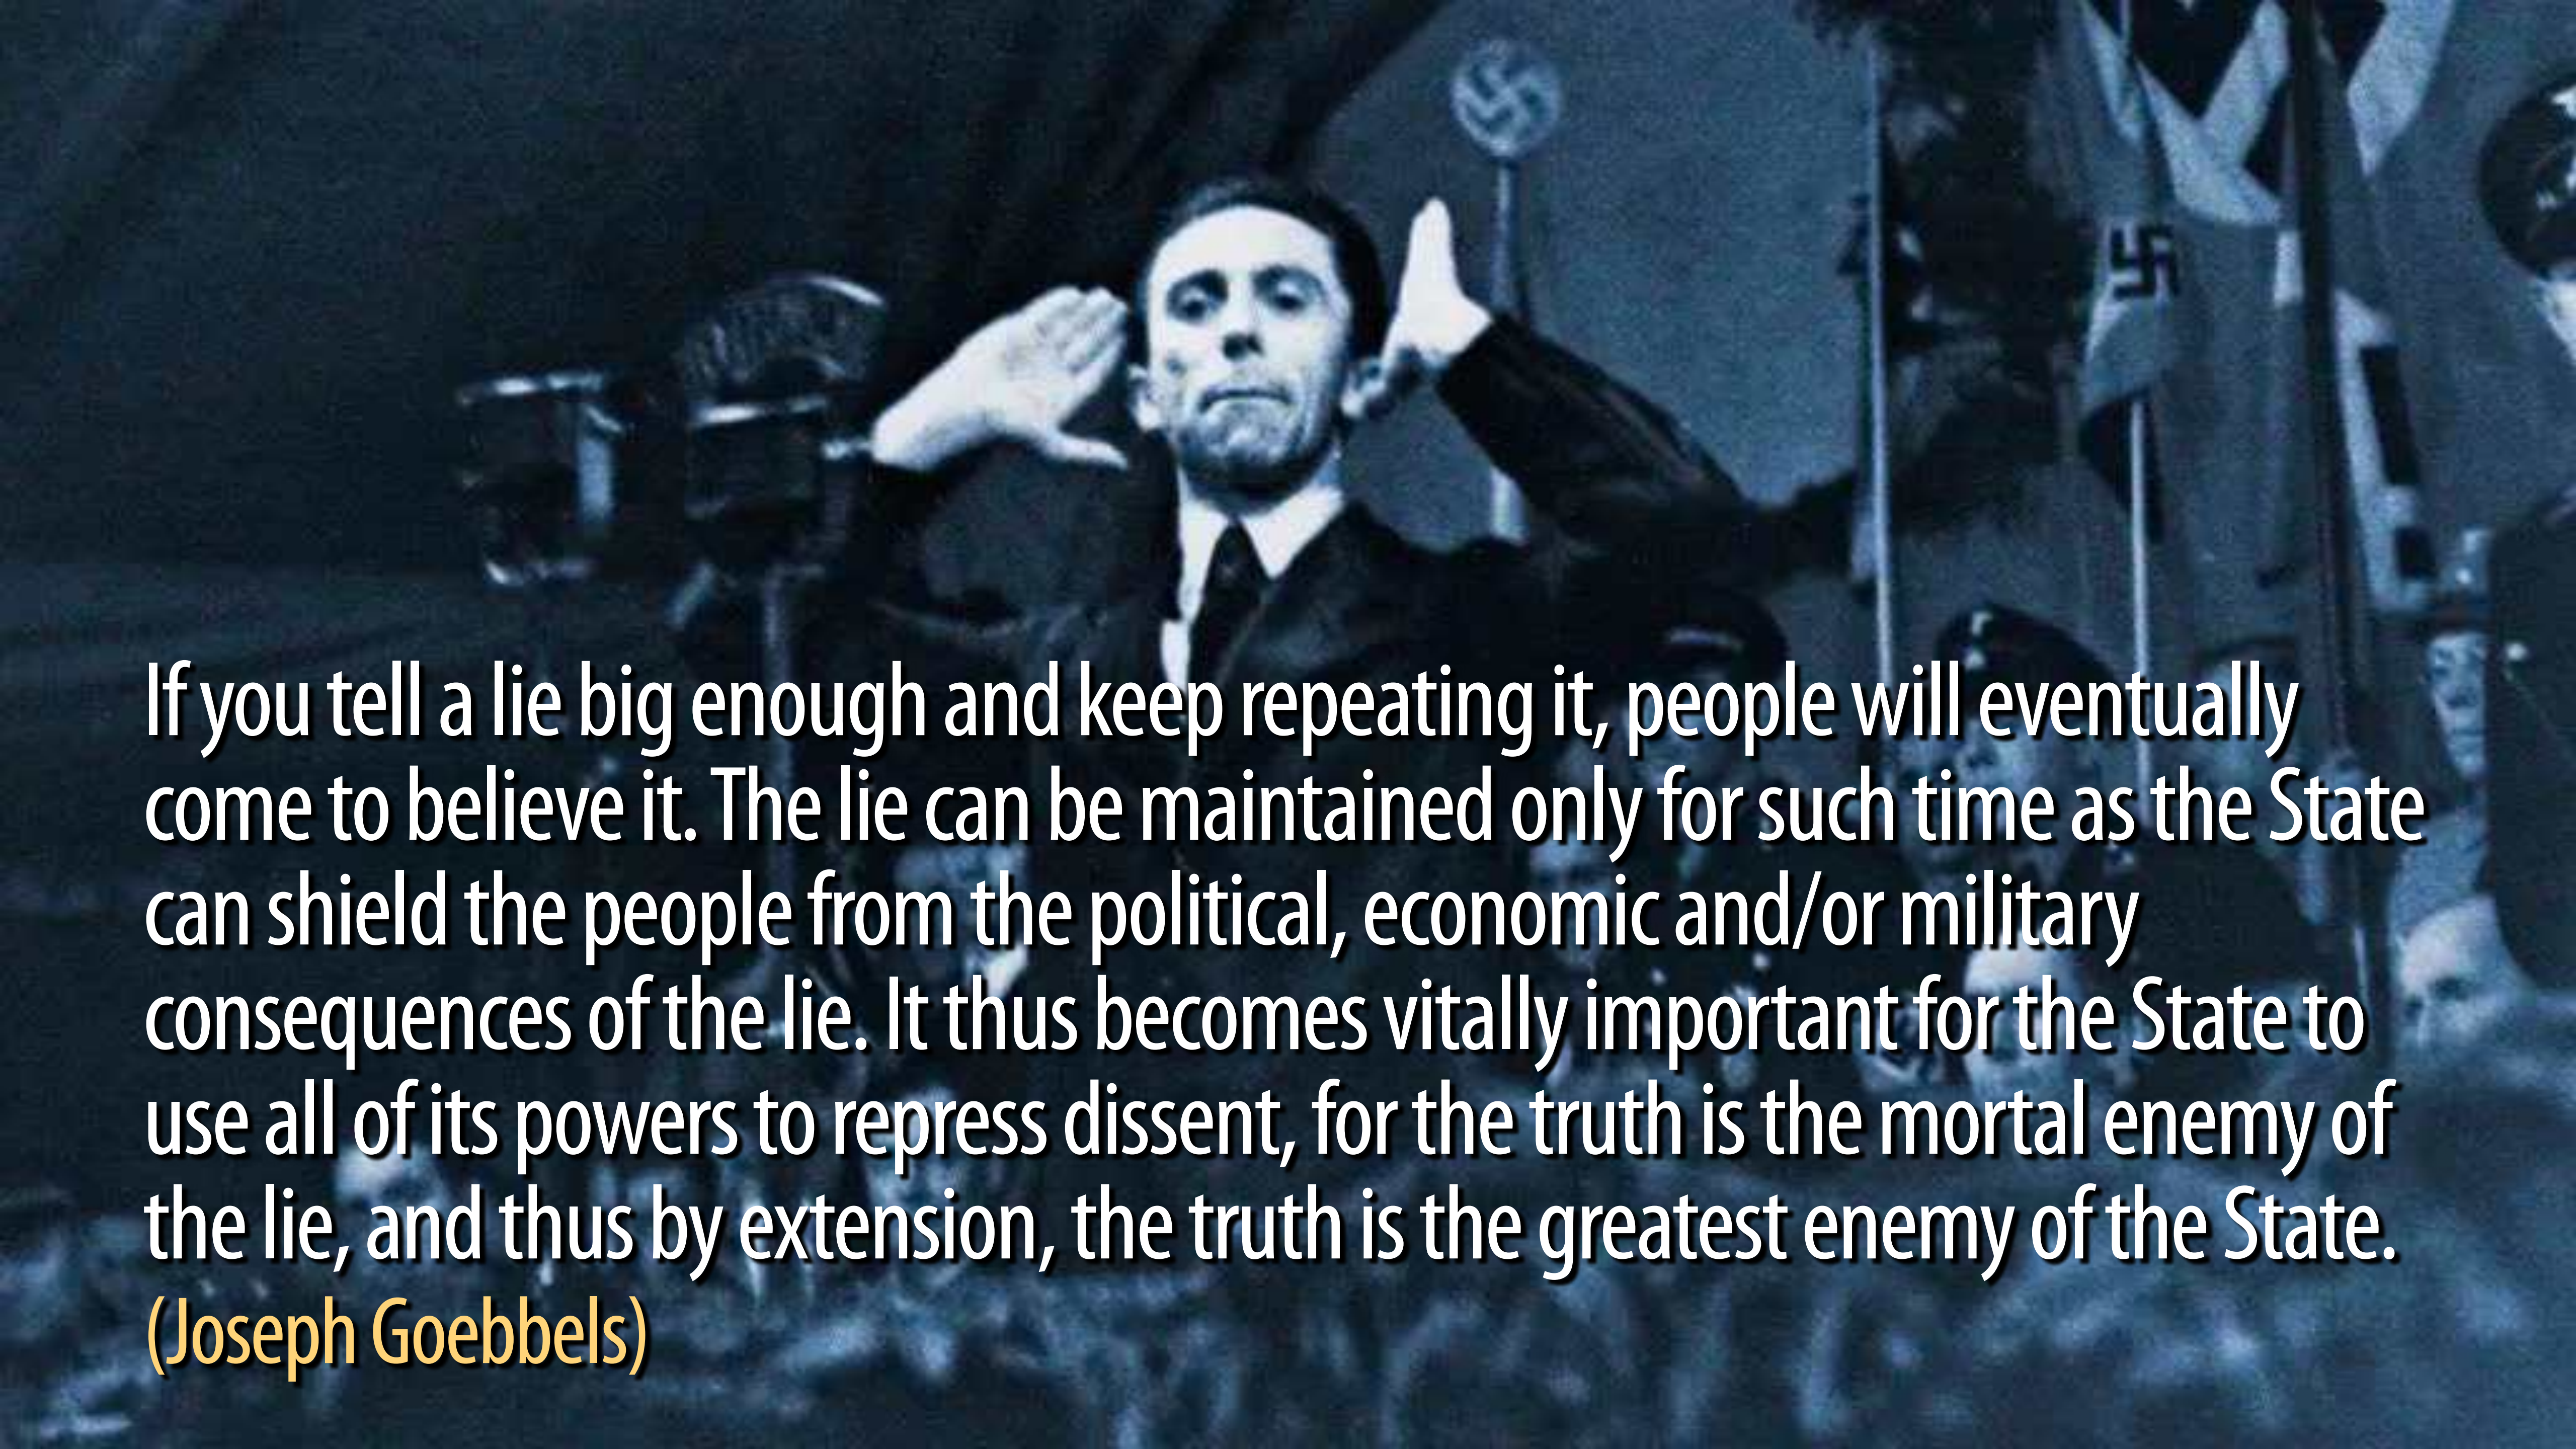

Tisha B'Av, the 9th day of the month of Av, is the saddest day on the Jewish calendar. It is a commemoration of a number of disasters in Jewish history, primarily the destruction of both Solomon's Temple by the Neo-Babylonian Empire and the Second Temple by the Roman Empire in Jerusalem, which were both destroyed on this date.

7. For the mystery of lawlessness is already at work; only he who now restrains will do so until he is taken out of the way.
8. Then that lawless one will be revealed whom the Lord will slay with the breath of His mouth and bring to an end by the appearance of His coming;
9. that is, the one whose coming is in accord with the activity of Satan, with all power and signs and false wonders,
10. and with all the deception of wickedness for those who perish, because they did not receive the love of the truth so as to be saved.

2 Thessalonians 2:7-10

11. For this reason God will send upon them a deluding influence so that they will believe what is false,
12. in order that they all may be judged who did not believe the truth, but took pleasure in wickedness.

2 Thessalonians 2:11-12

If you tell a lie big enough and keep repeating it, people will eventually come to believe it. The lie can be maintained only for such time as the State can shield the people from the political, economic and/or military consequences of the lie. It thus becomes vitally important for the State to use all of its powers to repress dissent, for the truth is the mortal enemy of the lie, and thus by extension, the truth is the greatest enemy of the State.

This is one of the pictures by Ahmad Jihad Ibrahim Al-Erini - أحمد جهاد إبراهيم العريني - fueling the "Hunger in Gaza" campaign. He works for the Turkish news agency "Anadolu" - الأناضول, a well-known propaganda arm of Erdogan's regime.

In his pictures shown in the West, Gazan children are depicted as supposedly starving to death. But doctors who examined this photo (and others like it) note that these are sick children & not victims of mass starvation. Some of the pictures were even taken from Yemen (not Gaza) or they were created by artificial intelligence.

Trump Clashes With Fed Chair In a Rare Visit

Pressing Powell on Cost of Bank's Renovation

By COLBY SMITH
WASHINGTON — President Trump sparred on Thursday with Jerome H. Powell, the chair of the Federal Reserve, over the cost of renovations to the central bank's headquarters in Washington during a tour of the active construction site. The visit by the president and other top White House officials was arranged to find evidence to back up allegations by the administration that Mr. Powell had mismanaged the costly project.
Mr. Trump was led through the site by Mr. Powell, who is a frequent target of the president's attacks because of the central bank's unwillingness so far this year to lower interest rates. The president has previously called on Mr. Powell to resign before his term is up in May and has also openly toyed with firing him.
The visit escalated the administration's pressure campaign, which has expanded beyond the Fed's handling of the economy to include the $2.5 billion revamp of two historic buildings by the National Mall that will become the central bank's headquarters.
Accompanying Mr. Trump at the Fed were Senator Tim Scott of South Carolina, the Republican chair of the Senate Banking Committee; Russell T. Vought, the head of the Office of Management and Budget; and William Pulte, the director of the Federal Housing Finance Agency. Mr. Vought and Mr. Pulte have led the charge against Mr. Powell, accusing him of gross mismanagement of the Fed.
Other attendees included James Hise, the White House's deputy chief of staff, who was seen

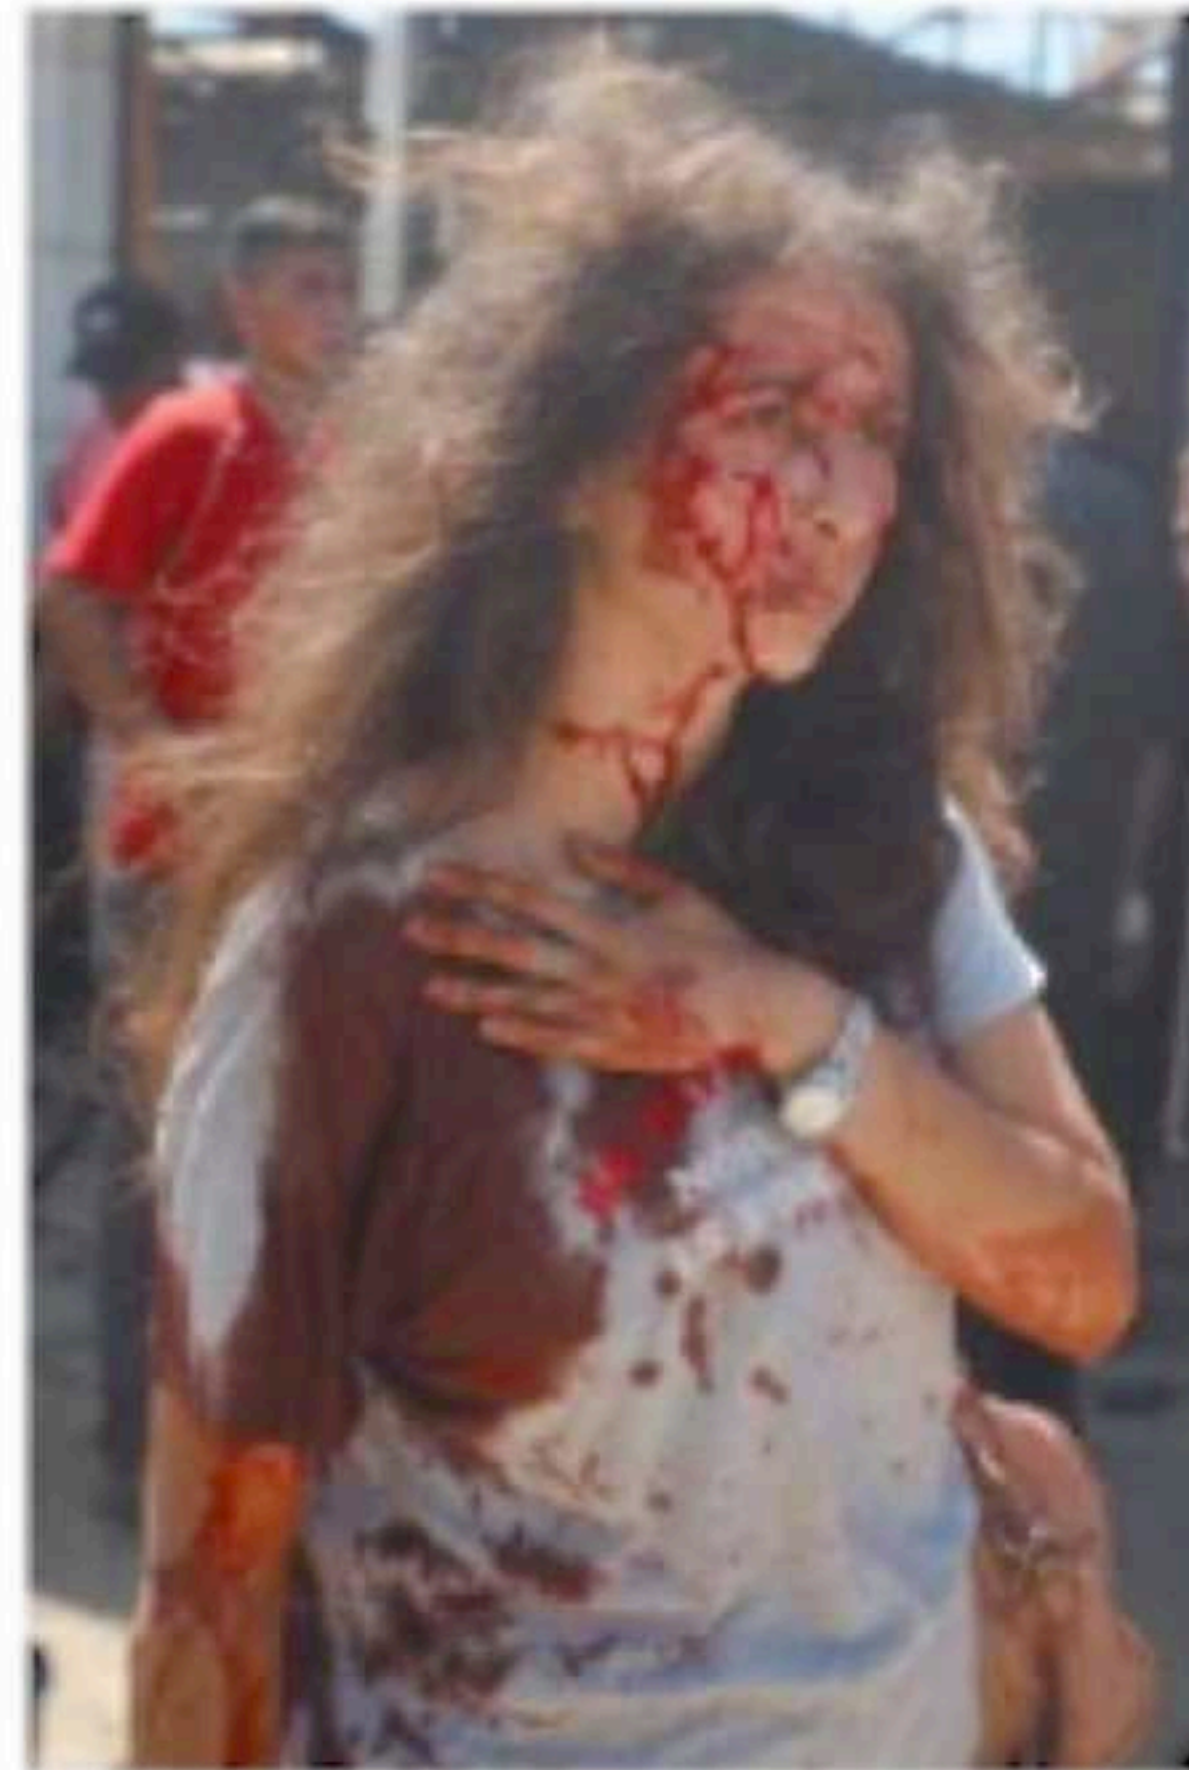

Mohammed Zakaria al-Mutawaq, about 18 months, with his mother, Hedaya al-Mutawaq, who said he was born healthy but was severely diagnosed with severe malnutrition. A doctor said the number of children dying of malnutrition in Gaza had risen sharply.

Why is the New York Times using a photo of Mohammed al-Mutawaq, a child with a muscular disorder, as the face of famine in Gaza?

Do you see this Gazan boy? He starred in Hamas's "starvation" campaign and has appeared on newspaper covers around the world... but what's the truth? This boy's name is Osama al-Raqab, and he suffers from a disease called Cystic Fibrosis (CF) — that's why he looks like this, not because of starvation. And not only that — Israel approved his transfer for medical treatment in Italy. In short: fake news and propaganda at the expense of a sick child... and the world keeps falling for this lie!!!

According to Italian media, Palestinian "journalist" Bayan Abu Sultan was allegedly caught faking an injury in Gaza for propaganda. They also criticise Western media for spreading it without checking the facts.

Gazan photographer Anas Zayed Ftelha stages the “suffering” of Palestinians for the world public, to the benefit of Hamas & its propaganda. German Newspaper “Bild” reports: Emaciated children, desperate mothers, and people begging for food with empty pots. These photos from Gaza are circulating around the world. They move millions and influence politics worldwide.

- ▶ Before the war, an average of 73 food and aid trucks were brought into the Gaza Strip daily; today about 80 are brought in.
- ▶ Since the beginning of the war, Israel has allowed more than 70,000 trucks and about 1.5 million tons of humanitarian aid into Gaza – a figure that is probably unprecedented in the history of wars.
- ▶ The vast majority of the aid is looted by Hamas.
- ▶ Almost all the pictures of "hunger" from Gaza (if not all) show children who are sickly thin alongside healthy parents. There is no such thing as "selective hunger."

- ▶ The UN refuses to distribute to Gazans more than 900 food trucks that have been inspected and approved by Israel, and their contents are rotting in the sun on the Gaza side of the border crossings.
- ▶ Israel allows any Gazan who wants to leave the Strip to do so – Egypt closes the exit to them.
- ▶ There is no hunger in Gaza – there are hostages. Once Hamas releases them and disarms, the war will end.

Today, the IDF invited dozens of international journalists to the Kerem Shalom crossing inside Gaza, to see for themselves.

Hundreds of aid trucks have entered Gaza with Israel's approval, but the supplies are standing idle, undelivered.

The reason?
The UN refuses to distribute the aid.

Hamas and the UN prevent the aid to reach the civilians in Gaza. The world deserves to know the truth.

American envoy Steve Witkoff at the end of his visit yesterday in Gaza, tells Al-Sharq Al-Awsat newspaper:

There is no hunger in Gaza. Hamas has no reason not to negotiate.

This is a very important statement by Witkoff whom President Trump sent to closely monitor the "hunger" situation in the Strip.

Hopefully, Israeli media outlets, at least, will manage to align with Witkoff...

This statement by Witkoff should be echoed in every possible way.

Israel's disengagement from Gaza in 2005 was a unilateral withdrawal of all Israeli security forces and settlements from the Gaza Strip in Aug. - Sept. 2005. The disengagement plan garnered significant controversy: those who supported it believed that moving Israel out of Gaza would reduce friction between Israelis and Palestinians, as well as free up vast sums of money to advance other issues on the national security agenda. Those who opposed the plan argued that radical Palestinian groups, specifically Hamas, would declare that they had gained all of Gaza without any concession to the Israelis, strengthening and emboldening the Palestinian opposition movements. Further, they argued, by ceding control of the borders, Gaza would have greater access to weapons, both in quantity and quality. This would make security infinitely worse for Israel. Hamas took control of the Gaza Strip in 2007.

Tonight in Israel it is the 10th of AV.

20 years ago today, 10,000 Jews were forcibly removed from Gaza. Dragged from their homes by Israeli soldiers—in hopes of bringing peace with the Palestinians.

Instead, Palestinians butchered us, raped our women, and kidnapped our babies.

▶ This hatred of the Jewish people, the children of Israel, is historic & it is both spiritual & natural in character & nature

22. For it is written that Abraham had two sons, one by the bondmaid and one by the free woman.
23. But whereas the child of the slave woman was born according to the flesh and had an ordinary birth, the son of the free woman was born in fulfillment of the promise.
28. But we, brethren, are children [not by physical descent, as was Ishmael, but] like Isaac, born in virtue of promise.
29. Yet [just] as at that time the child [of ordinary birth] born according to the flesh despised and persecuted him [who was born remarkably] according to [the promise and the working of] the [Holy] Spirit, so it is now also.

Galatians 4:22–23 & 28–29 (Amplified Bible)

- ① As believers, we are co-heirs of the covenant promise given to Israel

11. Therefore remember that formerly you, the Gentiles in the flesh, who are called “Uncircumcision” by the so-called “Circumcision,” which is performed in the flesh by human hands —
12. remember that you were at that time separate from Christ, excluded from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers to the covenants of promise, having no hope and without God in the world.
13. But now in Christ Jesus you who formerly were far off have been brought near by the blood of Christ.

12. For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; for the same Lord is Lord of all, bestowing His riches on all who call on Him.
13. For “everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.”
14. How then will they (Israel) call on Him in whom they have not believed? And how are they (Israel) to believe in Him of whom they have never heard? And how are they to hear without someone preaching?
15. And how are they to preach unless they are sent? As it is written, “How beautiful are the feet of those who preach the good news!”

Romans 10:12–15

- ① God will judge the nations & He will judge the Church also on how they have dealt with His people Israel
- ① End-time prophecies centre around Israel & if you have no place for Israel in your theology or if you are indifferent to Israel, then you can't take end-time prophecies seriously
